The Biggest Show on Earth is for free and Hermanus rightfully boasts its status as the best land-based whale watching spot in the world. Champagne air, fynbos mountains, sparkling vistas and abundant marine life offer a stark contrast to quaint boutiques, art galleries, open-air cafes and craft markets, and makes Hermanus a much sought after destination. The beaches provide virtually endless opportunities for water activities while narrow trails through nature reserves and lush vineyards provide the ultimate quad biking and hiking experience. For the thrill seekers, shark cage diving at nearby Gansbaai, just 40 minutes away from the town is popular option. Of historical interests in George is the Slave Tree - an ancient oak to which slaves were chained before they were auctioned to the highest bidder. A length of chain and padlock are still embedded in its trunk. George also has the largest collection of steam trains at the Railway Museum, while the Church of St Peter and St Paul is the oldest Roman Catholic Church in South Africa. George is the perfect base to explore several nearby attractions like game safari, wine estates, village markets and golf apart from a host of outdoor activities like paragliding, hang-gliding, hiking, canoeing and sailing. Meaning "the pot that boils" in Tswana, the town has acquired its name, and some of its fame, from the geothermic hot springs around which the town was built. These are also known as Warmbaths; and at one time, so was the town. The hot springs claim multiple minerals and beneficial curative properties, and, along with the comforting, mild climate, the jaw-dropping encounters with the Big 5, and the stunning Biosphere Reserve, make Bela Bela an extremely alluring destination.

Golf Courses: 5 Rounds of Spectacular Vistas and Memorable Holes

🚩 CLOVELLY

📍 Fish Hoek, Cape Town

👤 Par 72 | Hole 18 | 5893 m

Nestled in the tranquil Silvermine Valley between Fish Hoek and Kalk Bay, the Clovelly Country Club rewards accuracy off the tee and provides players with scenic views of the False Bay coastline. Known for its year round conditioning, the relatively short course possesses a unique character by virtue of its proximity to the sea. The dune lined fairways lead to excellent bent grass and poa annua greens; while the many trees create shelter from the strong summer sea breeze.

The rolling computer-irrigated fairways complement visually pleasing water features, which impact the 1st, 10th, 15th and 17th holes. The signature hole is the 4th, a par-4 with out-of-bounds and a stream on the left, and a green guarded by a water hazard. The clubhouse presents a high vantage point not only of the 18th hole, but also the 1st and 10th which both feature sharp doglegs, to the right and left respectively.

🚩 HERMANUS

📍 Hermanus, Overberg

👤 Par 72 | Hole 27 | 5869 m

The Hermanus Golf Club has held a reputation for excellent year round standards despite having always experienced heavy traffic at certain times of the year, blessed as it is with a dedicated and professional management. Hermanus Golf Club is a popular choice for golfing enthusiasts from Cape Town, the rest of South Africa and international visitors. With the recent refurbishments giving the course a unique makeover, the Hermanus Golf Club today presents an incredible challenge and experience.

In 2006, the classic country course underwent a major overhaul with the introduction of nine new holes. The course itself was considerably lengthened and the charming and gentle layout of the past has today been replaced with a modern classical design. The gorgeous sea views, mountainous surroundings, charming hospitality and former tradition remain. Yet, this golfing venue has truly reached a new zenith under South Africa's foremost golf course architect. Peter Matkovich infused his special brand of flair and experience to maximise the potential on this scenic and gentle landscape. The introduction of visually pleasant grassy mounds adds definition and shape to the holes. Superb new greens and bunkering have also been introduced.

🚩 FANCOURT MONTAGU

📍 George, Garden Route

👤 Par 72 | Hole 18 | 6714 m

Voted the number one golf course in South Africa in 2000, the Montagu Golf Course at Fancourt is named after the mountain pass of the same name, and is part of the original 27-hole design at Fancourt by the legendary Gary Player in the early 90s. This classic tree-lined parklands layout underwent a major facelift in 2005 under renowned Scottish golf architect David McLay Kidd.

The upgrade saw two completely new holes - the 1st and the 9th., redefined bunkers and greens and introduction of several water features such as the dam. Celebrated for its immaculate, round the year conditioning, the Montagu GC is currently ranked at #6 in South Africa (Golf Digest, 2014). The signature hole is the Par-3 17th, reminiscent of the 12th hole at Augusta National - the permanent home of the US Masters.

🚩 FANCOURT OUTENIQUA

📍 George, Garden Route

👤 Par 72 | Hole 0 | 6312 m

A majestic 18-hole parkland layout at Fancourt, designed by the legendary Grand Slam golfer Gary Player, the Outeniqua is quite similar to the Montagu and offers challenging design and fine conditioning to ensure an excellent test for all levels of golfers. With play being restricted to hotel residents, members and their guests, the course rarely seems crowded and you can enjoy a peaceful and comfortable round of golf at your pace. Although set in the same surroundings as its better known counterparts, the Outeniqua has developed an individual personality rivalling the others.

As with all courses at Fancourt, there are a variety of tees from which to choose to play, ensuring that golfers are unlikely to ever feel overpowered by the course. Excellent water features and creeks interspersed with uphill and downhill challenges and excellent bunkering (recently renovated) are all augmented in the charm and challenge by the colourful flora to be seen throughout the course.

🚩 ZEBULA COUNTRY CLUB

📍 Bela Bela, Waterberg

👤 Par 72 | Hole 18 | 6278 m

Located in the heart of the pristine and malaria-free African bushveld, the Zebula is surrounded by game lodges as well as nature and wildlife reserves. Designed by the environmental enthusiast Peter Matkovich, the course is laid out in a delightful harmony with the surrounds. The layout is such an organic part of the bushveld experience that one wouldn't be surprised to encounter a lofty giraffe or a bashful zebra or two over the course of the game. The wonderful year-round climate and the judicious use of naturally occurring water practically guarantees the course will be green year round.
